REGISTRATION CALL 2020

WORLD IN - UFMA (INTERNATIONAL CAMPUS PROGRAM - ICP)

Registration is now open for the World In - UFMA (International Campus Program) 2020, the program of the Agency for Innovation, Entrepreneurship, Research, Graduate Studies and Internationalization (AGEUFMA), through the Coordination of Mobility, Reception, and Proficiency (COMAP) of the Internationalization Directorate.

1. The Project

The WORLD IN Project - UFMA (International Campus Program) is an initiative of the Internationalization Board (AGEUFMA), linked to the Coordination of Mobility, Reception, and Proficiency (COMAP), which proposes the accomplishment of short courses, offered in a foreign language, and in different areas of knowledge and present in the undergraduate and postgraduate courses of our institution.

WORLD IN-UFMA constitutes one of the academic mobility and language policy actions for students regularly enrolled in undergraduate and postgraduate courses at this institution as much as other national and International Higher Education Institutions. One of its sources of inspiration is a similar experience of course offered by the internationalization program developed at the Federal University of Juiz de Fora (MG), whose success is of great importance in contributing to the numbers that rate the university in the nationals and international rankings.

The main objectives are: to provide a local internationalization experience for students from the Federal University of Maranhão (UFMA), in addition, to attract an increasing number of international students, thus increasing the visibility of our institution. This program facilitates partnerships among teaching staff and students of our University with international professors, which is going to promote the emergence of new agreements and joint research projects.

This practice is directly linked to other programs executed by the Internationalization Board, in its axis of Language Policies and Proficiency, such as Languages without Borders (ISF), as well as UFMA extension programs focusing on foreign language teaching, such as the Foreign Language Course Extension Project - Núcleo de Cultura Linguística (NCL) and Maranhão Language and Culture Center (CLC), in particular, Portuguese for Foreigners, which is going to be offered to foreign students who participate in WORLD IN - UFMA (ICP).

2. Our goals

The main objective of the program is, therefore, to promote the dissemination of the production of the researchers of this institution, through linguistic and cultural exchange. The target audience is composed of undergraduate and postgraduate students who can enroll in the offered courses, and the teaching staff of the institution and partner Institutions that propose to offer the courses, according to the explicit requirements below.

In the pursuit of scientific dissemination of what it is produced by the researchers of this the institution, such a program as WORLD IN - UFMA (International Campus Program - ICP), is going to contribute for the establishment of more international cooperation, from the coming of international students and researchers. It is also an opportunity for the international acknowledgment and circulation in the international area of the academic productions of the researchers of this institution.
